The Escalade Sports story

THE CHALLENGE

Escalade Sports needed to reduce 'order to delivery' times and to dramatically reduce claims for North America home deliveries, as well as streamlining its inbound logistics from Asia.

THE SOLUTION

Escalade Sports selected SEKO Logistics for direct to consumer home deliveries within North America. SEKO then deployed an inbound logistics program in Asia to help with supply chain management, and also assists with inbound third party logistics services at strategic service centers, to fulfill holiday rush orders to retail partners.

THE RESULT

Escalade Sports saw dramatic reduction in claims for all direct to consumer deliveries within North America, reducing buyer's remorse and increasing customer service and sales. SEKO's inbound consolidation program also realizes reduced transportation costs with less frequent inbound shipments and enables better delivery performance from vendors in China. Meanwhile, utilization of SEKO's key US distribution locations has helped provide just in time delivery services and reduced delivery costs to key Escalade Sports clients.

"SEKO reduced our claims for Home Delivery in the US by 90%."
